OUR PRINCIPLES.

Truth for authority, not authority for truth.

Perfect freedom of inquiry as necessary in religion as in science.

No one ought even to try to believe what is contrary to reason.

No creed can contain the whole, or even the most important part of religion.

Character is more than belief or profession

OUR AIM.

“To build the universal church,
Lofty as is the love of God,
And ample as the wants of man.”

A SUGGESTED BOND OF UNION.

“In the freedom of truth, and in the spirit of Jesus Christ, we unite for the worship of God and the service of men.”

SPECIAL NOTICES.

11:00 a. m. Sermon by Rev. Solon Lauer,
Pastor First Unitarian Church of San Diego.

Subject: "Science and Religion: Are they Friends or Foes?"

To the Members of the Church of the Unity

DEAR FRIENDS AND PARISHIONERS:

I desire in this way to return to you my grateful acknowledgements for the very kind and appreciative expression, at the last annual meeting, of your regard and good will toward me. Coming at a time when I am so unexpectedly and lamentably prevented from the full performance of my pulpit and pastoral work it is especially comforting and reassuring. You can well imagine how very trying to me personally is this enforced absence from what I hoped might be a ministry of reconciliation and good will among you. It is some compensation for one's sufferings and disabilities to know that I have the sympathy and confidence of my friends. I feel that I have been brought closer to the hearts of my new parishioners by this recent experience than by a year of pulpit service merely. You will be glad to learn that I am surely, though slowly recovering, and hope before long to resume the full discharge of my pastoral duties; though I may have to ask your kind indulgence for a little time longer, while I seek for full restoration to health. In the meantime I will see to it that the pulpit ministrations shall be acceptable and profitable and I ask you to co-operate in maintaining the attendance at the Sunday service and the general activities of the parish at their usual level.

And now, dear friends let us fulfill the apostolic exhortation, and forgetting the things that are behind; reach forth to the things that are before; ever pressing forward to the mark of our high calling in him who said "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples that ye love one another" With fraternal greeting, and invoking the blessing of God upon you, each and every one, I remain.

Your friend and pastor,

CHAS. W. WENDTE.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Pastor First Unitarian Church of San Diego.

Subject: "Unitarianism. Old and New."

Words of Abraham Lincoln

Born Feb'y 12th, 1809

"Let us have faith that right makes might, and in that faith, let us, to the end, dare to do our duty as we understand it.

With malice toward none, and charity for all; with firmness for the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive to finish the work we are in."

"Die when I may, I want it said of me by those who know me best, that I always plucked a thistle and planted a flower when I thought a flower would grow."

"I go for all sharing the privileges of the government who assist in bearing its burdens, by no means excluding women."

"I have never united myself to any church, because I have found difficulty in giving my assent, without mental reservation, to the long, complicated statements of Christian doctrine which characterize their articles of belief and confessions of faith. When any church will inscribe over its altar, as its sole qualification for membership, the Savior's condensed statement of the substance of both Law and Gospel. "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself," that church will I join with all my heart and with all my soul."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

"A head how sober; a heart how gracious;
A manner equal with high or low;
Rough but gentle, uncouth but gracious,
And still inclining to lips of woe.

Patient when saddest, calm when sternest;
Grieved when rigid for justice' sake;
Given to jest, yet ever in earnest
If aught of right or truth were at stake."

From Brownell's Ode.

Tributes to Washington.

More than any other individual, and as much as to one individual was possible, has he contributed to found this our wide-spreading empire, and to give to the western world its independence and its freedom.—John Marshall, 1799.

His example is now complete, and it will teach wisdom and virtue to magistrates, citizens, and men, not only in the present age, but in future generations, so long as our history shall be read. It remains for an affectionate and grateful people, in whose hearts he can never die, to pay suitable honor to his memory.

Let his countrymen consecrate the memory of the heroic general, the patriotic statesman and the virtuous sage. Let them teach their children never to forget that the fruits of his labors and his example are their inheritance.—Letter of the Senate 1799.

Let no occasion pass of commemorating this illustrious man; and, until time shall be no more, will a test of the progress which our race has made in wisdom and virtue be derived from the veneration paid to the immortal name of Washington.—Lord Brougham.

11:00 a. m. Sermon by Rev. N. A. Haskell,
pastor Unitarian Church, San Jose.

Subject: "The Beautiful Soul"—

Schiller.

Sunday next, March 6, Mr. Haskell will preach upon the subject suggested by the soliloquy of the King in "Hamlet" and by Portia's plea in "The Merchant of Venice."

"Whereto serves mercy
But to confront the Visage of offence?
And what's in prayer but this twofold force,
To be fore-stalled ere we come to fall,
Or pardoned being down."

"In the corrupted currents of this world
Offences gilded hand may shove by justice
And oft t'is seen the wicked ruze itself
Buys out the Law. But tis not so above,
There, is no shuffling—there the action lies
In its true nature, and we ourselves compelled
Even to the teeth and forehead of our faults
To give in evidence."

Scripture Text—"Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he reap."

"Great is the worlds need of a church that will admit of unlimited progress; that will hold individual men and women to the service of the highest, and help them to adjust their faith to an ever increasing knowledge. In such a church there will be no finalities to arrest the advancement of the individual and of the race, and no conflicts between religion and science."

"The church that alone can meet the needs of this hour in the worlds life must be a free fellowship of kindred souls, seeking after Truth and righteousness. Such is the Church of the Living Christ. It is the ideal which this Unitarian Church is trying to make real in this community"

"The Unitarian Church attempts to re-establish the simple faith and the fellowship of the society of Jesus. It admits of unlimited progress. Following the example of Jesus it trusts everything to the Spirit of Truth, which, Jesus said, "will guide you unto all Truth."

Extract from the sermon upon "The Church of the Living Christ"—by Rev. N. A. Haskell.

I don't believe any of us can afford to neglect the Sunday's opportunity of religious culture. There is nothing that I see which at all takes the place of joining in an act of common worship, and listening to the words of religious counsel or instruction. Think how the voices of passion, and selfishness, and worldliness, are clamouring round us from morning to night. Think how we are continually slipping on our upward way; how tired and discouraged and indifferent Saturday night finds us. Well, we are not wise in thinking to trust entirely to our own private effort to recover ourselves. Let us go to the place that is consecrated to holy thoughts. Let us lift together the hymns of trust and praise. Let us hear over again, under newer light, the words that have in them perennial life;—pray with the common supplication;—listen to the re-affirmation of the true law of life, its worthiest aims, its divinest hopes. I believe that will do more to refresh, rest, re-invigorate us than anything else.

LESS OF CREED AND MORE OF LOVE

There are many of our best men, men of the greatest power and influence in literature, science, art, politics, aye, even in the Church itself, who are no longer Christian in the old sense of the word. Some imagine they have ceased to be Christians altogether, because they feel that they cannot believe as much as others profess to believe. We cannot afford to lose these men, nor shall we lose them if we learn to be satisfied with what satisfies Christ and the Apostles, with what satisfies many a hard working missionary. If Christianity is to retain its hold on Europe and America, if it is to conquer in the holy war of the future, it must throw off its heavy armor, the helmet of brass, and the coat of mail, and face the world like David, with his staff, his stones, and his sling. We want less of creeds, but more of trust; less of ceremony, but more of work; less of solemnity, but more of genial honesty; less of doctrine, but more of love.—PROF. MAX MULLER.

SUNDAY, MARCH 6, 1898.

9:30 a. m. Sunday School.

11:00 a. m. Sermon by Rev. N. A. Haskell,
pastor Unitarian Church, San Jose.

Subject: "The Law of Sequence in Conduct."

Suggested by the soliloquy of the King in
"Hamlet," and Portia's plea in the "Merchant of Venice." The Higher ethics proclaimed by the advanced thought of this century—an answer to the question "Can sin be forgiven?"

Sunday, March 13th, Mr. Haskell will preach upon "The World Beautiful." Text: "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirit of God dwelleth in you."—Paul.

"Be thou the true soul thou art seeking."

"After all it rests with ourselves as to whether we shall live in a World Beautiful."—

Lillian Whiting.

"The soul which is not moved;

The soul that with a strong and constant calm

Takes sorrow and takes joy indifferently;

Lives in the life undying, indestructable."—

The Song Celestial.

"Go forth and bless

The Church, that needs the hand and heart,
Of Martha's patient carefulness,

No less than Mary's better part,"

President.....Mrs. Calvert Wilson

SecretaryMiss Belle I. Smith

Treasurer.....Mrs Percy R. Wilson

Vice-Presidents.....Mesdames C. W. Wendte,
E. J. Soper, Thos. Pascoe, Misses M. M. Fette, and F. M. Maurice.

Rev. N. A. Haskell will act as the minister of this church until Mr. Wendte's return. He may usually be found at the residence of Rev. C. W. Wendte, 1848 South Flower Street, Telephone, Blue 2761.

SUNDAY, March 20th, it is expected that the minister of the church, Rev. C. W. Wendte, will be able to occupy the pulpit, and to resume the duties of his ministry.

Desirable sittings may be secured for from $6 to $24 per year by application to Wm. English, Sexton, in the west vestibule, before or after each service, or daily at the Church during the hours of 8 to 11 a. m. and 1 to 4 p. m., also of Mr. D. F. Hall, Secretary, 2633 East 1st St.

"The Beautiful Soul cannot be beguiled by dreams of happiness or of utility. It soars like a bird into the light of the upper heavens, its native element. It must be its own free, glad self. It sings its song of joy and triumph because its being is so full of the gladness of life that it must sing. We are to live the beautiful life of the soul, not alone that we may urge the race-life on the vaster issues, but, supremely that we ourselves may search for vaster issues: that we may experience the joy of a life that soars above "the miserable aims that end in self;" that "in thoughts sublime" we may find our unity in the eternal mind; that in the beatific vision that comes "in moments sure though seldom" "the spirits true endowments may stand out plainly from its false ones, and apprise it if pursuing the right way or the wrong way to its triumph or undoing."

In living this life of the soul we gain that sweet purity."

"For which we have struggled, failed and agonized,

With widening retrospect that bred despair,

"All discords quenched in its harmonies

Die in the Large and Charitable air"

And all our rarer better truer self

That sobbed religiously in yearning song

That watched to ease the burden of the world,

Laboriously tracing what must be,

And what may yet be better."

Sees within the worthier image and shapes it forth divinely human.

That better self is "the spirits true endowment" seen in the light that, amid uncertainty and darkness flashes in upon the soul. That ideal, like a star, once seen is never lost from its place in the heavens. Clouds and mists may hide for a time its light, the clouds will vanish, the ideal will shine on forever to guide man in his upward way.—Extract from the Sermon upon "The Beautiful Soul"—by Rev. N. A. Haskell.

11:00 a. m. Sermon by the Pastor.

Subject: "The Sanctity of Common Life."

MAXIMS.

Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice and be exceeding glad for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.—

Gospel of Matthew.

"Surely, after all, the noblest answer unto such is perfect stillness when they brawl."

I honor the man who is ready to sink Half his present repute for the freedom to think,
And when he has thought, be his cause strong
or weak,
He'll risk t'other half for the freedom to speak,
Caring not for the vengeance the mob has in store,
Let that mob be the upper ten thousand or lower.

T. B. Lowell.

The age needs nothing more than peace-makers, men of serene, commanding virtue, to preach in life and word the gospel of human brotherhood, to allay the fires of jealousy and hate.

Dr. Channing.

Be that you seem, truly your country's friend,
And temperately proceed to what you would.

Shakespeare.

“If our national President and his advisers, wise, just and peace-loving men, shall decide that we must go to war with Spain, it is our solemn, though sad duty to sustain that decision, without regard to party or private opinion, and support the administration of our country in war as in peace.”

Extract from last Sunday's Sermon.

God of all Nations! Sovereign Lord!
In thy dread name we draw the sword,
We lift the starry flag on high
That fills with light our stormy sky.
From treason's rent, from murder's stain,
Guard thou its folds till Peace shall reign,
Till fort and field, till shore and sea,
Join our loud anthem, PRAISE TO THEE.

O. W. Holmes.

OUR PRINCIPLES.

Truth for authority, not authority for truth.

Perfect freedom of inquiry as necessary in religion as in science.

No one ought to even try to believe what is contrary to reason.

MAY 29th. A Patriotic Service, in preparation for Decoration Day, Special Music.

An invitation to attend the service has been accepted by the National Veteran Reserve, for whose occupancy seats will be assigned.

UTTERANCES OF SAVONAROLA.

“O Rome, what is it that I ask of thee? only a bull to enforce righteous living.”

“The excellence of man consists not in the law but in Christian love, and he only who possesses this, knows what is necessary to salvation. He who commands anything against Christian love Anathema sit! let him be excommunicated of God! And though an angel said it; though all the saints and Virgin Mary said it (which is of course impossible) Anathema sit! If a canon or a council says it, Anathema sit! And if any Pope has ever contradicted what I here affirm, let him be excommunicated.” [In reply to the Pope's Bull of excommunication.]

“I declare to you this conflagration is so mightily kindled that you will not be able to put it out, blow at it as you will.”

“The end of this struggle will be that I shall be cut down and die. But the end will be victory for my principles, because they are not mine, but God's.”

The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance ;

Yea, blessed is the memory of the just !
For they rest from their labors,
And their works do follow them.

Wherefore, seeing we have such examples
before us,

Let us lay aside every weight of sin,
And let us run with patience
The race that is set before us.

4. CHOIR "How lovely are the

5. PRAYER.

6. CHOIR. "Blessed are the Merciful. " Berridge

7. CONGREGATIONAL HYMN

"To Boylston" No. 225.
Flung to the heedless winds,
Or on the waters cast,
Their sacred ashes shall be watched,
And gathered at the last ;
And from that scattered dust,
Around us and abroad,
Shall ever spring a plenteous seed
Of witnesses for God.

The Father hath received
Their latest living breath ;
O then how vain is Satan's boast
Of victory in their death :
Still, still, though dead, they speak,
And trumpet-tongued proclaim
To many a far and wakening land
The one prevailing name.

Martin Luther, Trans.

ORDER OF SERVICES.

1. ORGAN "A Mighty Castle is our God" Luther.

2. CONGREGATIONAL HYMN, No. 276

"Life of ages, richly poured."

3. SCRIPTURE RESPONSE.

Min. Let us now praise famous men,

People. And our Fathers who went before us.

The Lord wrought great glory by them,

Through his power from the beginning.

Let us call to remembrance the great and good,

Who in times past have wrought righteousness;

Leaders of the people by their judgment;

Giving counsel by their understanding;

Wise and just in their example,

And by their knowledge meet for the people.

Their bodies are buried in peace:

But their name liveth for evermore.

The people will tell of their wisdom,

And the congregation will show forth their praise.

For the memorial of virtue is immortal;

Because it is known with God and with men.

When it is present mankind take example
of it,

And when it is gone they desire it.

It weareth a crown and triumpheth forever;

Having gotten the victory, striving for undefiled rewards.

“In the last hour only God can give comfort to man.”

“The Lord has suffered as much for me.”

[Last words of Savonarola.]

I Know.

BY THE LATE REV. J. FREDERICK DUTTON.

I know that never blooms in vain
A flower in any woodland lair,
That not a single drop of rain
Is lost upon the desert air.

I know that never is there whirled
Against the shore a grain of sand
But in the building of the world,
Serves to complete the perfect plan.

I know that never ran its race
A soul, however weak or small,
But surely found some resting place
In the great thought and heart of all.

Resignation of the Pastor.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, June 21, 1898.

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH OF THE UNITY:

DEAR FRIENDS:

Ever since my recent severe illness it has been increasingly apparant to me that I needed a long period of rest, and release from all professional duties to restore me to health.

For reasons also, which are well known to you, and need not be entered into here, the pastorate of the Church of the Unity is not congenial to me, and I work under great personal disadvantages. It was nevertheless my intention to continue my services among you until the expiration of the single year for which I had contracted to to fill your pulpit, and which ended Dec. 1st, ensuing.

But in the meantime the work of reconciling and re-organizing the Society on sound, churchly lines has progressed favorably. A constitution placing the church squarely on a Unitarian Christian basis has been adopted, a new Board of Trustees, composed of responsible and loyal men, has been elected, and the better, more religious elements of the church are uppermost in its councils and activities.

I can therefore creditably to myself, and with safety to the Society, withdraw at the present juncture from its pastorate to seek the rest and restoration which my condition of health imperitively demands. For various reasons, also, it will be more advantageous to the Church if I leave them now rather than next Autumn.

I beg you therefore, to accept this, my resignation as pastor, to take effect on the first of August next.

It will give me pleasure to co-operate with you in any way in my power in the choice of a suitable successor.

With assurances of Christian regard for you personally, and invoking the blessing of God on your future as a Church, I remain,

Fraternally yours,

CHAS. W. WENDTE.

NOTICE. The Social afternoon to have been passed at the residence of our pastor has been postponed to Tuesday afternoon July 12th, on account of the Red Cross benefit by Mme. Modjeska given on Thursday afternoon.

Most people entirely misunderstand Freedom. I sometimes think I have not yet met one person who rightly understands it. The whole Universe is absolute Law. To the degraded and undeveloped—and even to too many others—the thought of freedom is a thought of escaping from law—which, of course is impossible. Strange as it may seem, we only attain to freedom by a knowledge of, and implicit obedience to, Law. The free soul of man, at its greatest, understanding and obeying the laws, can then, and then only, maintain true liberty. As absolute as any—more absolute than any—is the Law of Liberty. The shallow, as intimated, consider liberty a release from all law, from every constraint. The wise see in it, on the contrary, the potent Law of Laws, namely, the fusion and combination of the conscious will, or partial individual law, with those universal, eternal, unconscious ones, which run through all Time, pervade history, prove immortality, give moral purpose to the entire objective world, and the last dignity to human life.

WALT WHITMAN.

Abraham Lincoln, while still a young lawyer at Springfield, twenty-eight years of age, away back in 1837, in an address before the Young Men's Lyceum, anticipated our mighty struggle for official purity, our ignoble civic disgraces, and indicated then what is still the only remedy, not only for our corrupt politics, but for our degenerate and selfish religion. It is the word of the Lord now, as it was then, to preachers and churches, as much as it is to legislators and political parties. In this address he said:

"Here, then, is one point at which danger may be expected. The question recurs, 'How shall we fortify against it?' The answer is simple. Let every American, every lover of liberty, every well wisher to his posterity, swear by the blood of the Revolution never to violate in the least particular the laws of the country, and never to tolerate their violation by others. As the patriots of seventy-six did to the support of the Declaration of Independance, so to the support of the Constitution and laws let every American pledge his life, his property and his sacred honor—let every man remember that to violate the law is to trample on the blood of his father, and to tear the charter of his own and his childrens liberty. Let reverence for the laws be breathed by every American mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap; let it be taught in schools, in seminaries, and in colleges; let it be written in primers, spelling books, and in almanacs; let it be preached from the pulpit, proclaimed in legislative halls, and enforced in courts of justice. And, in short, let it become the political religion of the nation; and let the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay of all sexes and tongues, and colors, and conditions, sacrifice unceasingly upon its altars.

Intellectual sympathies are limited, but moral sympathies are universal.

Christianity is so large a thing a man may well hold more than one opinion concerning it, according to the different degrees of his intelligence.

—Renan.

The world is a vast choir, wherein each of us has a part to sustain. Religion consists for every one of us in singing while we do our work, in praising God from morning to night by cheerfulness, good humor, and patience. How much easier will hearty homage and praise become when reason more widely rules the world, when, evil being more thoroughly vanquished, good becomes stronger; when the number of beings for whom life is a baneful gift grows insignificant!

INDIVIDUALITY.

"Men are looking beyond when they should look within themselves; they are anxious for the good of the community when they should be at work to mould their own nature to the best conformation of which it is susceptible. If those who use efforts for others, and use them seriously, would first use them to the utmost on their own spirits, society would advance more quickly towards regeneration. Just as one supreme work has a more elevating influence upon art than thousands that are imperfect, so one really complete and harmonious character does more to raise the community than scores which fail of proportion."—Henry Giles.

America will one day become what England is to-day—the head steward in the household of the world, because her service will be the best and the ablest.—William E. Gladstone.

It would change some of our familiar forms of speech if we realized how possible it is that when we are complacently dismissing a religious servious as “dull,” we may, in that judgment, be passing sentence upon ourselves, and be condemning our own unserious and unthoughtful moods and habits.—John Hunter.

LOYALTY.

Our modern Unitarianism, with its intellectual amplitude and its transcendent affirmations, is the fruit of the faithfulness and devotion of many generations of godly ministers and faithful people, and it is a possession of great price, worth many sacrifices, worthy of much loyalty, having in it much which the world really needs. And it were shame and ignominy to us indeed to be indifferent to its sublime affirmations, or the great message of fatherhood and brotherhood which it offers to the world. These can be treated in no way as secondary or unimportant. We are custodians, guardians, trustees of the truth won, no less than of the freedom through which it has been won. To treasure the freedom and despise its fruits were folly indeed. And it is laid on us to see that the teachings of what seems to us at once the simplest and the most beautiful Gospel which the world has ever known, be set within the reach of all to whom it may be a comfort, a strength, a help, and an inspiration.—R. A. Armstrong.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

MONDAY, 8 p. m. Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Wendte and Mme. Wendte will be tendered a farewell reception in the church. The evening is under the direction of the Board of Trustees and the Woman's Alliance of Unity Church. All are cordially invited.

THURSDAY, 2 p. m. The regular social meeting will be changed to a sewing afternoon and discussion for a sale in December. All ladies interested in the welfare of the church urged to be present.

SUNDAY, JULY 31st, 9:30 a. m., the Sabbath School will devote to music and recitations by the children. The congregation is cordially invited to be present.

Class lessons will be suspended in the Sabbath School during the months of August and September. In their place we have invited some friends of the school to give brief addresses to the children. The teachers having decided that it is best not to close our school this year. We have also arranged to have special music, both vocal and instrumental, for these meetings, and hope to make them very interesting and instructive, not alone to the children, but also for the older members of the congregation who are cordially invited to meet with us. The time of meeting will be from 10 to 11 o'clock a. m. of every Sunday.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The subject of the lecture in the Sunday School next Sunday by J. O. Blakeley is "Life and Pilgrimages of Jesus of Nazareth." Mr. Blakeley is one of the most thorough bible students in Southern California, and no doubt will do full justice to his subject. All are cordially invited.

Rev. John Snyder of the Church of the Messiah, St. Louis, Mo., will preach during the month of August. Mr. Snyder is being considered in connection with the permanent supply of the pulpit, and it is hoped that all members and friends of the church will come out and hear him while he is here.

The Board of Trustees are actively endeavoring to secure a Pastor for the church. It is expected that arrangements will be made to have Rev. C. J. K. Jones of Louisville, Ky. and Rev. E. B. Leavitt, of Washington, D. C., who have been very highly recommended for the place, to preach for us between this and the first of October, in order that the members of the church may act with knowledge of the qualifications of such persons as are being considered for the place.

Our Sunday School Library is sadly in need of some new books. If any member or friend of the church have any books such as will be interesting or instructive for the children, they will confer a great favor by leaving them with Mr. English at the church.

Our school is now thoroughly organized, we have a fine corps of capable and enthusiastic teachers who take great interest in their classes. We hope that the parents of the children in the congregation will appreciate the privileges afforded by our school by sending their children and in every wise encouraging them to attend promptly, as also continuously.

The congregation of this church will be glad to learn that the Vesper Sacred Concerts, which proved such an attractive feature in this church early in the summer, will be resumed two weeks from this date. The committee having them in charge has adopted the plan of securing a number of the representative musicians in the city to take charge of the programs. Each one of these directors is to have the entire responsibility of selecting the singers and performers, and directing the numbers of a concert. The morning newspapers and the Musical World contain more extended notices of the series of sacred concerts than can be given here.

Mrs. Orr Haralson, assisted by the Synagogue Choir and other artists, will present the first program at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of October 8th. The Calendar of that date will contain a detailed program of the concert. No admission will be charged, and all attendants of the church are urged to invite their friends to be present.

The Pastor's Residence is 209 South Hill Street, Telephone Main 866.
